PROFILE

I have been a professional dancer and actor for over 30 years. My career started as a classically trained ballerina, studying with companies such as New York City Ballet, San Francisco Ballet and Pacific Northwest Ballet. After graduating UCLA with a degree in Theater Film and TV, I moved to New York to pursue a career in Musical Theater. My first job was as a Rockette at Radio City Music Hall which. At the age of 26 I got my first job on Broadway and went on to do the Broadway and touring companies of "On the Town," "A Christmas Carol," "Chicago," and "Kiss Me Kate". In the classes I teach my goal is to instill a love of dance through strong technique and the art of storytelling through body movement.
