

SECOND PLACE MIDDLE SCHOOL FILM

Facing the Morning

Michael Pham, Grade 8

Oxford Academy, Cypress, CA

Teacher: Melissa Galvan

Testimony: Gerda Weissmann Klein

We all face a lot of challenges in life—academic, work-related, and personal. It's how we live our lives in response to these challenges that shapes who we become. Gerda Weissmann Klein had to face forced labor during the Holocaust and had to learn how to persevere. In this video, I focus on how she remembers her family's morals and how she used them to take on difficult situations.
