

Interdisciplinary Minor in ASIAN AMERICAN STUDIES

The Asian American Studies minor recognizes the diversity, contributions, and legacies of Asians in the US, representing 15% of the population of California and over 20 different countries.

For more information, please contact:

Professor Stephanie Takaragawa
takaraga@chapman.edu

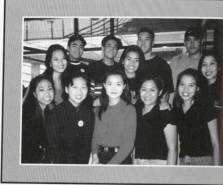

or, contact your Academic Advisor.

Asian Student Union

The Asian Student Union was founded in order to expose the Chapman community to various aspects of the Asian cultures. It is a club that provides related educational experiences. The Asian Student Union also encourages cultural and racial integration among the student body.

Members in photo: Anthony Tran, Michael Quiroz, Tim Ng, Anthony Tran, Earl Teppang, Anne Abinales, Amalia Bismarawath, Bernadesa Begonia, Ruth Lee, Pan Yen, Tricia Dalisay, Kristheche Angeles

The Asian American Studies minor provides an interdisciplinary approach to understanding the historical and contemporary experiences of peoples of Asian descent in the US. This minor draws from history, film, literature, anthropology and other disciplines, and is intended to compliment other majors at the university through its emphasis on critical and global thinking, and social justice.

LEARN MORE ABOUT THIS MINOR HERE!

