

ENGAGING THE WORLD LEADING
—— the conversation on
environmental justice

LECTURE SERIES

ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE: MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Tuesday, November 9, 2021, 11:30 a.m.

Discussion Zoom Link: chapman.zoom.us

Join this panel discussion and hear from Chapman University faculty as they discuss their research in the areas of environmental health and environmental justice.

Dr. Matthew Ballew – Assistant Professor of Psychology, Crean College of Health and Behavioral Sciences

Dr. Jason Douglas – Assistant Professor of Public Health, Crean College of Health and Behavioral Sciences

Dr. Richelle Tanner – Assistant Professor of Environmental Science & Policy, Schmid College of Science and Technology; Wilkinson College

Moderated by Georgiana Bostean,
Associate Professor, Environmental Science, Health and Policy, Schmid College;
Department of Sociology, Wilkinson College

Dr. Matthew
Ballew

Dr. Jason
Douglas

Dr. Richelle
Tanner

For more information on the Engaging the World series, visit our website www.chapman.edu/wilkinson/about/events/etw-environmental-justice.aspx